

Film Review Activity

1. Write a 1000 word review on the film you have just watched.
  - What happened?
  - Did you enjoy the film? Why?
2. How would you change the story? Would you do anything different? Create half a page of notes and ideas of how you would do things differently
3. Take a look at the existing film cover for the movie you have just watched . Your task is to make the film cover more suited for the film you can edit it on a computer or you can design it on paper however it must represent the film.
4. Write a formal letter to the creators of the movie. Either make a complaint to the creators explaining about the things you didn't like or write a letter complementing the creators on how well they have done and your ideas about a next film. (this letter will be assessed like an exam.

All your work needs to be handed in. The presentation of your work needs to be excellent. And completed on A4 paper. Use colours for your creative work.
