

Pacifism

Christians may see war as necessary to protect people from evil. An example of this is the Second World War. Many people feel this was justified because of the horrendous actions of the Nazi Party.

twinkl.com

Pacifism

The Church of England has a long history of providing support for the British Army by providing chaplains and holding military funerals and other ceremonies.

twinkl.com

Pacifism

'I say to you that hear, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you.'

(Luke 6: 27-28)

twinkl.com

Pacifism

Aquinas' Just War theory allows Christians to go to war if the war meets certain conditions (for example, is seen as unavoidable and does not require harming civilians).

twinkl.com

Pacifism

St. Paul said 'Let every person be subject to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God' (Romans 13: 1). People should therefore do what their government commands, even in matters of war.

twinkl.com

Pacifism

'Then they came up and laid hands on Jesus and seized him. And behold, one of those who were with Jesus stretched out his hand and drew his sword, and struck the slave of the high priest, and cut off his ear. Then Jesus said to him, "Put your sword back into its place; for all who take the sword will perish by the sword.'" (Matthew 26: 50-52)

twinkl.com

Pacifism

The fifth of the Ten Commandments says we should not kill.

twinkl.com

Pacifism

In Matthew's Gospel, Jesus commends a Roman centurion (soldier) for his faith, which He says is as strong as any He has ever encountered. He does not condemn the man for his profession, but helps him by healing his ill servant.

twinkl.com

Pacifism

'I say to you, Do not resist one who is evil. But if any one strikes you on the right cheek, turn to him the other also'

(Matthew 5: 39)

twinkl.com

Pacifism

Modern warfare often uses highly destructive weapons that can kill civilians. This can happen even if the armies involve try hard to avoid harming them.

twinkl.com

Answers

Reasons For Pacifism	Reasons Against Pacifism
'I say to you, Do not resist one who is evil. But if any one strikes you on the right cheek, turn to him the other also' (Matthew 5: 39)	The Church of England has a long history of providing support for the British Army by providing chaplains and holding military funerals and other ceremonies.
'Then they came up and laid hands on Jesus and seized him. And behold, one of those who were with Jesus stretched out his hand and drew his sword, and struck the slave of the high priest, and cut off his ear. Then Jesus said to him, "Put your sword back into its place; for all who take the sword will perish by the sword.'" (Matthew 26: 50-52)	Aquinas' Just War theory allows Christians to go to war if the war meets certain conditions (for example, is seen as unavoidable and does not require harming civilians).
'I say to you that hear, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you.' (Luke 6: 27-28)	Christians may see war as necessary to protect people from evil. An example of this is the Second World War. Many people feel this was justified because of the horrendous actions of the Nazi Party.
The fifth of the Ten Commandments says we should not kill.	In Matthew's Gospel, Jesus commends a Roman centurion (soldier) for his faith, which He says is as strong as any He has ever encountered. He does not condemn the man for his profession, but helps him by healing his ill servant.
Modern warfare often uses highly destructive weapons that can kill civilians. This can happen even if the armies involve try hard to avoid harming them.	St. Paul said 'Let every person be subject to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God' (Romans 13: 1). People should therefore do what their government commands, even in matters of war.