

Before I go, I need to know...

- What do I need to buy?
- Have I got a list?
- Is the supermarket open today?
- Am I going alone?
- Have I got money?
- Have I got my mobile phone?
- Do I need to take any bags?
- How will I get there?
- How will I get home again?
- Does anyone know where I am going?

Useful Phrases

- Where are the _____ (item), please?
- Can you help me find _____ (item), please?
- Can I have some bags, please?
Thank you.

Pretend that...

You need to buy some vanilla ice cream, but you can only see other flavours of ice cream.

Pretend that...

Your mum asked you to buy some milk, but there are lots of different kinds and you don't know which one she wants.

Pretend that...

You arrive at the supermarket and realise you have forgotten your money.

Pretend that...

The self-service checkout isn't working and won't let you scan any more items.

Pretend that...

Your dad asked you to buy some bread on the way home from school. You're at the supermarket, but don't know where the bread is.

Pretend that...

You are buying eggs, but realise all the eggs in the box are broken.

Pretend that...

You want to buy apples,
but can only see packs
with six apples in.

Pretend that...

You want to know if the supermarket sells dairy-
free yoghurts.

Pretend that...

The queue at the checkout is really long and you're worried you'll miss your bus.

Pretend that...

Someone pushes in front of you in the checkout queue.

Pretend that...

Someone asks if they can go in front of you in the checkout queue. They only want to buy milk. You have a trolley full of shopping.

Pretend that...

Your usual supermarket is closed when you get there. You really need to buy some bread.

