

KS2 Home Learning – Turn Taking

Mini Beasts – Create your own creature

Using the garden detective resource you will have learn about mini beasts where they live, what they eat and their body parts.

Create your own creature using the body parts of other creatures.

In this science game you will find out what each body part is used for, and then assemble your creation.

Tell us your creature's name, its feeding behaviour, type of movement and habitat.

