

Hello! Although we aren't able to speak to people face to face, we can still give a friendly wave from a distance! Draw around your hand and then decorate it with some bright colours and patterns. You could stick it in your window to wave to people who are passing by!

Be inspired!

The artist Grayson Perry makes beautiful pots and decorates them with drawings. Think about the things you have been doing during lockdown and draw them on the vase below.

