Islamic Scripture Analysis Answers

Read the quotes about racism and answer the questions.

O mankind! We created you from a single (pair) of a male and a female, and made you into nations and tribes, that ye may know each other (not that ye may despise (each other)).

Qur'an 49: 13

What does this quote tell us about Islamic views on racism?

This quote suggests that there are no differences between people as we are created by God from Adam and Eve. Though the Qur'an acknowledges we are divided into different races, it then says Allah did this so we can live in harmony, not fight.

those who do injustice to people... on earth for no reason will be questioned. They will suffer a painful torment.

Qur'an 42: 42

What does this quote tell us about Islamic views on racism?

This quote is a general moral command but can be applied to racism. Muslims must act justly towards one another or risk punishment in the afterlife. Racism is unjust and this is therefore unacceptable.

There is no superiority for an Arab over a non-Arab, nor for a non-Arab over an Arab. Neither is the white superior over the black, nor is the black superior over the white -- except by piety.

A quote from Prophet Muhammad's final sermon

What does this quote tell us about Islamic views on racism?

Muhammad's final sermon makes it clear that the only thing that makes someone better than another person is piety. There is no difference between races, and no race is superior to others. Racism is therefore wrong.
