

World War II

Turning Point Investigation

Work with the other children in your group to investigate the following question:

To what extent was _____ a turning point in the war?

When and where did the event take place?
Who was involved?
Key facts (in chronological order)
How did this event affect future events in the war?
What might have happened if the outcome of this event was different?
Was this event a key turning point in the war? Why/why not? Explain in detail.	