

Designated Teacher for Looked-After and previously Looked-After Children

Rationale

We believe this policy should be a working document that is fit for purpose, represents the school ethos, enables consistency and quality across the school and is related to the following legislation:

- Children and Young Persons Act 2008
- Children and Social Work Act 2017
- Academies Act 2010
- Designated Teacher (Looked-After Pupils etc.) (England) Regulations 2009

The following documentation is also related to this policy:

- Designated teacher for looked - after and previously looked-after children: Statutory guidance on their roles and responsibilities (DfE)
- Equality Act 2010: Advice for Schools (DfE)
- Keeping Children Safe in Education: Statutory Guidance for Schools and Colleges (DfE 2019)
- Working Together to Safeguard Children: A Guide to Inter-agency Working to Safeguard and Promote the Welfare of Children (2018)
- Special Educational Needs and Disability Code of Practice: 0 to 25 Years. Statutory Guidance for Organisations Who Work With and Support Children and Young People with Special Educational Needs and Disabilities (DfE) and (DoH)
- Improving the attainment of Looked After Children in primary schools (DCSF)
- Race Disparity Audit - Summary Findings from the Ethnicity Facts and Figures Website (Cabinet Office)

We are aware that 'Governing bodies and proprietors should ensure there are appropriate policies and procedures in place in order for appropriate action to be taken in a timely manner to safeguard and promote children's welfare.' (Keeping Children Safe in Education: Statutory Guidance for Schools and Colleges (DfE 2019))

We have the duty to ensure that an 'appropriately qualified and experienced member of staff undertakes the responsibilities within the school to promote the educational achievement of looked- after and previously looked-after children on the school's roll.'

We understand that the designated teacher role is statutory and that we must ensure that the designated teacher undertakes training that is appropriate to carrying out this duty.

We are aware that many looked-after and previously looked-after children may have:

- suffered disrupted learning;
- missed extended periods of school; and
- special educational needs

We understand that attainment data for looked-after and previously looked-after children clearly shows that they do not perform as well at Key Stage 2 and Key Stage 4 when compared to non-looked-after children. We believe that gaps in their learning and the emotional impact of their experiences are likely to have become significant barriers to their progress.

We are aware that the role of the designated teacher need not necessarily be carried out by a single individual or by a qualified teacher and that the role varies from school to school. The main role is raising the attainment of looked-after and previously looked-after children on roll but at times it may include pastoral and administrative tasks depending on the circumstances.

We ensure the designated teacher provides a termly report on how looked-after and previously looked-after children (including how the PP+ is used) are supported and their level of progress.

We are aware that the needs of looked-after and previously looked-after children may have implications for all school policies and therefore we ensure that policies are effective in reflecting their needs.

We wish to work closely with the School Council and to hear their views and opinions as we acknowledge and support Article 12 of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child that children should be encouraged to form and to express their views.

We as a school community have a commitment to promote equality. Therefore, an equality impact assessment has been undertaken and we believe this policy is in line with the Equality Act 2010.

We all have a responsibility to ensure equality permeates in to all aspects of school life and that everyone is treated equally irrespective of age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex and sexual orientation. We want everyone connected with this school to feel safe, secure, valued and of equal worth.

We acknowledge the findings of the Race Disparity Audit that clearly shows how people of different ethnicities are treated across the public services of health, education, employment and the criminal justice system.

The educational section of the audit that covers: differences by region; attainment and economic disadvantage; exclusions and abuse; and destinations, has a significant importance for the strategic planning of this school.

We believe it is essential that this policy clearly identifies and outlines the roles and responsibilities of all those involved in the procedures and arrangements that is connected with this policy.
